

Branch Manager

Lute Supply has grown from a single small location in Portsmouth, Ohio into a multi-branch multi-state wholesale distributor of plumbing, heating and cooling, kitchen-bath products that currently operates locations in Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia and Indiana. Lute Supply was ranked 40th in the U.S.A. in HVAC distribution and ranks in the Top 150 Premier Wholesalers in the country. The company also earned a Sales Leader Award from Goodman Mfg. a leading manufacturer of residential heating and cooling equipment.

Great opportunity for an experienced manager:

The right candidate will oversee all site level activities pertaining to fulfilling orders, inventory management, customer satisfaction, facility status (all vendors and services included), detailed P&L, corporate strategic initiatives in safety, quality, financial/KPI performance, communications, individual/team building, and continuous improvement initiatives.

Essential Skills and Experience:

- Proven leadership ability within a team environment.
- Excellent interpersonal and problem solving skills.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills.
- Ability to build strong, positive rapport with associates in a team environment.
- Ability to lead through personal example that communicates integrity and consistency in decision making.
- Establishes site standards and best practices to include policies, procedures, and workflow development.
- Ability to accurately define Territory Manager role, proactively take responsibility, and manage priorities with minimal guidance.

Requirements:

- Must be proficient with computers.
- Familiar with HVAC products a plus.
- Must be able to work a 40 to 50 hour work week regularly.
- Must pass pre-employment and random drug screenings.
- Performs other related duties as assigned.

Competitive salary as well as commission bonuses. Excellent Benefit Package!
Lute Supply is an Equal Opportunity Employer and Drug Free Workplace